YOUR RIGHT TO INFORMATION

The UN logo is rendered in a stylized, hand-drawn font with thick outlines and hatching. It is contained within a yellow speech bubble that has a tail pointing towards the bottom left.

Convention on the Rights of the Child

Countries should ensure that youth have access to information and material from diverse national and international sources – especially those aimed at the promotion of his or her social, spiritual and moral well-being and physical and mental health. They should recognize the important role media plays in spreading such information.
